Corporate Development Officer at the
Rady Children's Hospital Foundation

San Diego Rady Children's Hospital

On the topic of the
NEW ACUTE CARE PAVILLION
AT SAN DIEGO
RADY CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

December 5, 2007, Rady Children's broke ground on its new 279,000-square-foot Acute Care Pavilion. Scheduled to open Oct. 10, the Pavilion is a part of Rady Children's vision to keep its covenant of hope and healing for our region's children and families, and to contribute even more to the practice and science of pediatric medicine worldwide.

Room in the new Rady Children's Hospital Acute Care Pavilion

Rady Children's built this new Acute Care Pavilion to ensure that our region's children receive the medical care they need right here, in San Diego. With 154 new beds to address the critical shortage of pediatric beds in the region, Rady Children's has become the largest children's hospital in the state.
