

PRESENTS AT THE NOVEMBER 2010 MEETING

OLYMPIAN,
BUSINESS & LIFE COACH
MARY ANDREWS

ON THE TOPIC
"You've come a long way"

Now that you have made it as women in the construction business, what's next? Olympian, Business & Life Coach Mary Andrews will be with us on November 9th to acknowledge your successes. She will also inspire you to get what you need as you continue to make it all happen— at work, at home, and in your communities.

Mary works as a Business & Life Coach in service to people's greatness. She brings a unique blend of heart and strength to her clients. She specializes in working with business people who want to go beyond their individual success, and are confronted by company paralysis and workloads that have them experiencing concerns that they are neglecting work, home, or their own health.

Mary holds the designation of Associated Certified Coach from the International Coach Federation, is a graduate of Stanford University, and was a member of the United States Olympic Team in Track & Field.
